- Learn how children make sense of the world through their behavior
Autism, Meltdowns, Overeating, Sleeplessness
- Learn how to restore children who experience violence and abuse
- Learn how to be a protective influence in today's environment
- Understand how today's culture influences your children
- It may not be too late to make a difference in your child's development

Presenter Penny Phares is an advanced registered nurse practitioner, child therapist and registered play therapist who uses brain research, anatomy, and physiology to help mothers, fathers, and grandparents realize how vulnerable their children's minds are in today's changing environment.

The Isaiah Foundation, Inc. is a non-profit United Way agency partner dedicated to helping young families at risk and is involved in the Born Learning campaign through Footpaths to the Future®, preparing families to help their children succeed in school and life.
